

ROUGE CONSIGNMENT BOUTIQUE CONSIGNOR CONTRACT

TERMS OF CONTRACT

Thank you for choosing Rouge as your lifestyle consignment boutique. Please read and understand the following agreement before consigning any merchandise with us.

1. Rouge reserves the right to accept or reject any merchandise to be consigned. Acceptance does not guarantee sale of consigned merchandise.
2. Items deemed not saleable will be donated immediately unless you specify at the time of each drop-off that you will be back by date specified on drop off form to pick up your returns. Items remaining after specified date shall become the property of Rouge.
3. Rouge will determine the pricing of merchandise based upon their original retail value. If a consignor has special concerns regarding the value or pricing of their items, Rouge encourages them to communicate that information at the time of drop-off. If a consignor wants to reclaim any unsold items, it is their responsibility to pull it from inventory before the 75 day consignment period has ended. After the 75 day selling period, all unsold, unclaimed items will become property of Rouge unless you contact us prior to the end of the 75 day selling period to make special arrangements.
4. Seasonal items will be subject to a shorter consignment period when items are brought in after the seasonal cut-off dates. Rouge reserves the right to markdown inventory for special sales and promotional events
5. Rouge will issue a check upon request to the consignor for 45% of the final selling price before taxes. Checks can be mailed at the request of the consignor. Consignor balances do not expire and can be used at any time for store credit.
6. Rouge is not responsible for damage or loss of consigned merchandise due to fire, theft or destruction.
7. Consignors must present their items in ready-to-sell condition – clean, pressed, in season, and free of defects. We prefer clothes to be nicely folded in structured shopping bags rather than brought in on hangers. Please limit the number of items you bring in to 25 items or less per visit.
8. Rouge donates unselected and unsold items to local charities in Eagle County.
